

PERRY BEEKMAN

JAZZ VOCALIST & GUITARIST

QUOTE SHEET

"Beekman is an engaging singer, and a terrific guitarist. His partners in music are perfectly simpatico with his approach to the material. This combination of jazz and the sophisticated songs of Cole Porter will lift your spirits and keep a smile on your face."

Review by Joe Lang
Jersey Jazz

"There seems to be a lot of retro Diana Krall love in the air these days. Beekman leads a jazz trio doing bright, bouncy takes on core Cole Porter classics. This is probably pretty much how Krall would have sounded, except for the singer here being a guy, if she did a Porter album instead of a Nat Cole record. Weird synchronicity, huh?

"This jazz guitarist takes a delightful meander through territory that's not quite jazz, not quite cabaret but enough of both to please either audience. Standards taken off the beaten path, what a concept. Give it a spin when the need for sophistication is in the air."

Review by Chris Spector
Editor and Publisher, MidWest Record
<http://midwestrecord.com/MWR637.html>

"Making old school new cool is a walk in the park for Beekman who is indeed real deal talent..."

Review by Brent Black
<http://www.criticaljazz.com/2013/04/perry-beekman-so-in-lovesings-and-plays.html>

"It's wonderful -- sweet and jazzy, tart and heartfelt, cool and passionate, all at the same time, just like Cole Porter himself."

Review by Mary Fairchild
Maverick Concerts

"If you love Cole Porter, you've found a friend. Whether on his purely instrumental numbers or the numbers where he sings along, It is as though Porter is in our midst. This is bound to rise to the top of the heap!"

Review by Grady Harp
www.amazon.com